MISS HOLLINS LEADS
ALL WOMEN GOLFERSChanges in New Rankings of the Metropolitan Association.MISS LILLIAN HYDE
ALONE AT SCRATCHMost Surprises Come in the Third Division—Many Handicaps Reduced.

Leaders have been completely shifted about in the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association's 1914 handicap list, issued last night. Miss Marion Hollins, of Westchester, the metropolitan champion, who also was runner-up in the national championship at Wilmington last fall, is now ranked at plus 1, and Miss Lillian B. Hyde, of South Shore, former metropolitan title holder, is alone at scratch.

Mrs. Elizabeth Earle, of Englewood, the 1912 champion; Miss Georgiana M. Bishop, erstwhile holder of both the national and local titles, and Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, of Baituluro, are at 1.

In the list for 1913, Miss Hollins was rated at 2 and Mrs. Earle and Miss Hyde occupied the scratch position together. Developments of the season, however, reduced the handicap list so far as the leaders were concerned, so that a new order of things would be in effect in the fall.

On this list Miss Hyde plus 2, the scratch position was abolished. Under the circumstances Miss Hollins after first being advanced five strokes to a class by herself is now brought back two strokes, although she still occupies the honor place. Mrs. Rogers's advance to the division is two strokes off her allowance of last year.

There is a vast difference between the 3 division of 1913 and this year. Mrs. Florian Krug, of Englewood, and Mrs. Lawrence Swift, of the same club, remain there, but Mrs. A. S. Ross, of Century, is a newcomer, along with Mrs. W. J. Faith, of Wykagyl, reduced from 4 to 3. A. G. Cahn, of Century, brought down from 8, and Mrs. H. R. Stoughton, of Plainfield, whose reduction is two strokes. Mrs. Percy Ingalls, of Essex County, is now at 4, whereas a year ago she had an allowance of 5. Mrs. William Chivers, of Dunewood, showed 7 last spring, is also in the 4 division.

There are more than two dozen women whose handicaps have been cut 5 or 6 strokes, and there are about seventy-five in all who will feel the effect of the blue pencil. The committee in charge of the work is composed of Mrs. E. E. Donohue, Montclair, chairman; Miss Eleanor N. Whitney, Morris County, and Miss Page Schwarzschild, Mahopac.

The list up to a handicap of eleven follows:

PLUS 1. Mrs. Marion Hollins, Westchester.

SCRATCH. Miss Lillian B. Hyde, South Shore.

Partner in Golfing Tilt

Sandwich, England, April 9.—Francis Quimet, of Brookline, Mass., open golf champion of the United States, and Arthur G. Lockwood, former amateur champion of Massachusetts, won a foursome here today.

They played against the Marquis of Lillithgow, and Lord Charles Hope, his brother, when the Americans defeated by 5 up and 4 to play.

Quimet's outward card registered 40 strokes and his home card was 43. The match was played in a boisterous wind.

Allotted Time.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Jockey Club yesterday C. K. G. Billings was unanimously elected a member, and official announcement was made of the removal of the office to 18 East 41st st. on April 15.

The secretary was requested to remind the members that they were invited to attend the Sportsman's dinner to be held at the New Willard Hotel, Washington, on May 6.

At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club the application of Frederick Schelke to have the suspension against him removed and grant him a trainer's license was denied. The applications of John E. Rowe for a trainer's license and of Arthur Wiseman for a jockey's license also were denied.

Peter Stur, ruled off the turf in 1905, was reinstated. The appointment of officials for the summer meeting of the Queens County Jockey Club and the Empire City Racing Association was approved.

The president of the Metropolitan Jockey Club announced that, due to the condition of the stand, it would be impossible to conduct races at Jamaica, so that the stewards approved the applications of the Westchester Racing Association to extend its meeting from May 23 to June 20, the Queens County Jockey Club from June 23 to July 10, and the Empire City Racing Association from July 11 to July 20.

The protest of J. W. Hedrick against the payment of the purse in the Pine Forest Stakes to R. Colston was denied, while the application of Tommy McGart for a jockey license was refused.

The application of the Coney Island Jockey Club to transfer the Futurity to the Saratoga Association was granted.

The action of the stewards of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association in suspending J. O'Neill, L. M. Lester, F. J. Riley and O. Bagley, and the horses Gollivog, Country Boy and Lajole, was approved, and the case was referred back to the stewards of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association for further investigation.
